HANNING & KAHL

"Planning ahead" is our ambition, commitment and driving force. HANNING & KAHL is an innovative team-driven company with proven success. Our technical products are installed in rail-based transportation and industrial applications. For over 120 years, HANNING & KAHL has been a world leader with creative ingenuity and a people-oriented management style. Our success stems from an excellent team with a vast amount of expertise. We would like to shape the future with employees looking for a career that is both challenging and rewarding.

Our subsidiary team in the USA needs YOU

LP570H
Service Technician

Your tasks:
- After intensive technical training in our facility in Germany, you will be responsible for commissioning, maintenance, and repair of complex safety critical systems (electrical, electro-mechanical and electrohydraulic)
- Coordinate with the Customer & subcontractors, as necessary
- Maintain customer relations by providing training and technical support
- Area of operation: North American market

Your profile:
- Completed training (degree) as a mechatronics engineer or an industrial electrician
- Knowledge of electrical engineering, electronics, hydraulics, and mechanics
- Experience in the sector of (light) rail technology preferred
- Excellent service ethos and customer relations
- Experience in civil engineering and/or control and safety technology preferred
- Field service experience
- IT skills desirable, German language is a plus
- You are sociable, a team player, assertive and show initiative
- Driver's license is required
- Willingness to travel (passport required)
- Interest in a long-term working relationship

We offer:
- Work in a rapidly growing market
- A position of trust with a high degree of independence and responsibility
- A job with an international enterprise maintaining a long tradition of success

Your contact:

HANNING & KAHL
GmbH & Co. KG
Rudolf-Diesel-Straße 6
33813 Oerlinghausen
www.hanning-kahl.de

bewerbungen@
hanning-kahl.com

We look forward to your application.

Head for the Future